

STINGER BASKETBALL

CONCORDIA CAPTURES CENTENNIAL HOOP CLASSIC

The 1987-88 edition of the Concordia men's basketball team lived up to its 'Stinger' nickname at the 22nd annual Centennial Tournament November 6 and 7 at the Loyola Campus Gymnasium. Head coach Doug Daigneault's Bees buzzed up a storm, capturing the championship trophy with a thrilling 95-91 triumph over the Dalhousie University Tigers.

Concordia, the defending Quebec University Athletic Association (QUAA) champions, received outstanding individual performances from sophomore forward Nick Arvanitis, rookie centre Dino Perin and guard Mike Cohee.

The Stingers opened up play against the St. Joseph College (Vermont) Saints, one of the top teams in the American Mayflower Conference. Under the guidance of mentor Mark Cartmill, the Saints came marching in to Montreal anxious to make a name for themselves. And they did, battling Concordia to the final buzzer and losing 72-69. Arvanitis pumped in 25 points for the winners while Cohee and Perin contributed 18 and 17 respectively. Dalhousie upended the Ryerson Polytechnical Institute Rams 100-83 in their first round match to set up the exciting final.

Perin, the talented recruit from Vanier College, led the way for Concordia with 25 points. Arvanitis, selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player, added 20 points and Cohee had 19.

St. Joseph took home the consolation trophy, defeating Ryerson 104-88.

Bob Phillip, Acting Director of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics at Concordia, served as tournament chairman.

22nd annual Concordia University Centennial Basketball Tournament

Concordia University Stingers
Dalhousie University Tigers
Ryerson Polytechnical Institute Rams
St. Joseph College in Vermont Saints

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 6TH

Dalhousie	100	High Scorer: Wilhelm Verbeek	26 points
Ryerson	83	High Scorer: Jamie Voskuil	22 points

Half-time score - Dalhousie 55, Ryerson 40

Concordia	72	High Scorer: Nick Arvanitis	25 points
St. Joseph	69	High Scorer: Chris Levins	16 points

Half-time score - Concordia 38, St. Joseph 34

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 7TH

St. Joseph	104	High Scorer: Sylvester Younger	27 points
Ryerson	88	High Scorer: Jamie Voskuil	24 points

Half-time score - St. Joseph 49, Ryerson 32

Concordia	95	High Scorer: Dino Perin	25 points
Dalhousie	91.....	High Scorer: Wilhelm Verbeek	26 points

Half-time score - Concordia 50, Dalhousie 49

CONSOLATION: St. Joseph

ALL-STAR TEAM

CHAMPIONSHIP: Concordia

Nick Arvanitis, Concordia

Wilhelm Verbeek, Dalhousie

Sylvester Younger, St. Joseph

Andrew Merritt, Dalhousie

Jamie Voskuil, Ryerson

M.V.P. Nick Arvanitis